We are extremely sorry to let every contributor know that due to some unavoidable reasons and to complete the entire double-blind peer reviewed of a large number of research articles received for the Journal of the Department of English; Hijli college; Kharagpur and to complete the editing of the journal minutely, the time of publication that was mentioned earlier in the CFP notice of the college; may get significantly delayed. We expect a few more months to complete the entire process of publication. All the contributors are requested to bear with us.

If anyone wishes to withdraw his/her research article/Paper due to our unintentional delay; please send an email within 7 days requesting to cancel and withdraw the same. We will announce the tentative date of publication of the journal along with the article processing fees in our next notice. You are all advised to check our website for updated information regarding this. Thank you for your understanding.
